2010 MILITARY SKILLS DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM SANDF RECRUITS INTAKES

Thousands of the class of 2009 matriculants who answered the call to make the Department of Defence and Military Veterans their employer of choice, are expected to swell the ranks of the South African National Defence Force (SANDF) as the January 2010 intake for new recruits, get underway.

Over four thousand four hundred and sixty three (4463) fit and deserving young South Africans from all nine provinces of the country who were successful in their quest to join the SANDF have started to report to various SANDF Military Bases to commence with training.

On Sunday 10 January 2010, over one thousand (1000) new SA Army recruits will assemble at the Johannesburg Park Station for final instructions before being ferried to various SA Army Military Bases.

You are invited to send a journalist and a cameraperson/photographer to cover the event.

Venue: Johannesburg Park Station.
