SOUTH AFRICAN NATIONAL DEFENCE FORCE (SANDF) RE-INTEGRATES MEMBERS WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE ILLEGAL MARCH TO THE UNION BUILDINGS IN 2009

The SANDF has commenced a process to re-integrate members who were placed on special leave following the illegal march to the Union Buildings in 2009. Members who are currently at Mtubatuba, in Kwa Zulu Natal undergoing Preliminary Investigation will upon completion or postponement thereof return to their home units.

In order to ensure a smooth running of this process, the SANDF has put in place support mechanisms for the members whenever the need arises. These mechanisms include spiritual, social and psychological support.

The SANDF commends the members for the co-operation displayed as expected from soldiers.
