EMBARGO: None

SUBJECT: EXERCISE SEBOKA OPEN DAY AT SOUTH AFRICAN ARMY
COMBAT TRAINING CENTRE: 15 NOVEMBER 2013

Exercise SEBOKA Open Day will be held on Friday, 15 November 2013 at SA Army Combat Training Centre, Lohatlha. The annual training exercise is aimed at integration training with troops of the Military Skills Development System. The evaluation of the integration training is done by means of a joint exercise in order to protect the South African borders and its people.

Exercise SEBOKA is an exclusively SA Army training exercise conducted at SA Army Combat Training Centre with an aim of facilitating an integrated training, and to showcase SA Army's state of readiness in conventional warfare. It is executed by SA Army Combat Training Centre and support elements. The Open Day will consist of fire power demonstrations that showcase the SA Army level of preparedness.

The Chief of the SA Army, Lieutenant General Vusimuzi Masondo will be the main functionary at this event, with his counterpart from Angola. The Chief of the SA Army will deliberate on developments, future training and utilisation plans for the SA Army during the briefing to the media.

You are cordially invited to send a reporter or a cameraperson/photographer to cover the event at SA Army Combat Training Centre, Lohatlha.
